

The Great Lakes - St. Lawrence Seaway System
Le réseau Grands Lacs - Voie maritime du Saint-Laurent

SEAWAY NOTICE NO. 13 – 2015

MOORING LINE SAFETY

As a result of a recent incident at a Seaway lock during lockage operations, mariners are reminded of the potential of mooring lines parting/breaking during this type of operation. Mariners should exercise caution when mooring lines are used to secure and/or let-go ships during a lockage so that the safety of crew members and lock personnel is well protected.

December 15th, 2015