MARINE SECURITY AT COTE STE-CATHERINE WHARF

Mariners are advised of the change in marine security measures at Cote Ste-Catherine wharf (wharf n° 4) for all ships that are tied-up and not in interface with one of the lessees at the wharf. The costs of compulsory security will be billed to the concerned ships. There will be a minimum of 4 hours charged to the ship. For certain Canadian ships whose security plan permits, it will be possible for them to perform their own marine security and avoid costs. In these cases, they must advise the operations centre in advance by email at cdo@seaway.ca that they refuse the security based on their own security plan. In no way does this affect marine security procedures already in place between ships and the lessees at the wharf.
